Monthly membership reports can still be mailed to us at the PO Box listed below. We are awaiting direction from National PTA on a number of timely issues, including what do about upcoming officer elections and end of year business. We will be providing an update with information later this week.

We have also made the decision to postpone the 105th Annual New Mexico PTA Convention currently scheduled for May 7th, 8th and 9th until August. Further details will be sent out as they become available.
